

Homes for Life

Homes for Life provides shelter and support services to homeless youth, ages 17-21, particularly targeting those who leave foster care at age 18 and are without a home. Shelter is provided in a comfortable, homelike environment with intense case management provided for the duration of time it takes to lead these youth to successful, independent living. Woven throughout all these activities is the message of the love of Christ and the opportunity for these youth to develop a personal relationship with the Lord.

Opportunities for Service:

Mentoring, personal donations-both monetary and in-kind, assistance with facility renovations, host families to house youth on an emergency and temporary basis.
