

Tri-Mountain Community Church

Tri-Mountain is a young church in Ridgefield, WA. The church was started with the purpose of reaching out to young families in the N. Clark County area of Washington State and that the church would eventually become a center for church planting and world missions. Tri-Mountain is now a little over 4 years old! Growth is consistent – averaging about 130 people in Sunday morning worship. Last year we took a mission trip to Thailand and continue to partner with missionaries there to do church planting in their area. In addition, we have a partnership with a new church in Portland that was started for ministry to Karen refugees recently relocated here from Thailand and Myanmar. The vision is in infant stages, but very exciting to be a part of.
